

Mountain House is conveniently situated as the new "gateway" to San Francisco and the surrounding Bay Area—located on the picturesque western edge of San Joaquin County. Mountain House's uniquely central locale, at the junction of Highways 205 and 580, provides easy access to all major transportation corridors and is less than an hour away from San Francisco and San Jose's commercial and entertainment districts. Additionally, this peaceful valley location is just minutes away from Tracy, so from day one, great shopping, dining, and recreation will be only a short drive away.
